

SOCIOLOGY 118 – SOCIOLOGY OF GENDER

University of California, San Diego

Fall 2024

Lecture Meetings: MWF, 6:00pm-6:50pm in CSB 004

Office Hours: Fridays, 4:45pm-5:45pm and by appointment in SSB 473

Instructor: Pablo Victoria Torres, Ph.D. (pvictori@ucsd.edu)

In over ten years teaching at the college level, what I have learned is that to convey the knowledge you are sharing, you must embody it. It is my pleasure to be able to do so.

Course Description from the Course Catalog

An analysis of the social, biological, and psychological components of becoming a man or a woman. The course will survey a wide range of information in an attempt to specify what is distinctively social about gender roles and identities; i.e., to understand how a most basic part of the “self”—womanhood or manhood—is socially defined and socially learned behavior.

Learning Objectives

Upon successful completion of the course, you should be able to:

1. Become perceptive to the sociological perspective
2. Explain what a social construct is and identify processes that make gender a social construct
3. Apply concepts, theories, and ideas discussed in this class to multiple socio-historical contexts and to your own biography
4. Trust your own voice while recognizing and respecting others’
5. See why society needs you to be YOU <3

Learning Material (Readings and Movies)

Readings: I will provide you with all our readings. You can find these on our Canvas page.

Movies: I find that films are an effective teaching tool in social science courses. As such, we will be watching several movies that relate to the topics we cover. You are responsible for watching these as they appear on our course schedule own your own if you miss class or if a film is not shown in class. To the best of my knowledge, all the movies are available to rent or watch online on streaming services such as Google Play, Netflix, Hulu, Amazon Prime Video, Disney+, etc. Rentals on non-subscription websites (such as Google Play) are about $5. If you have trouble accessing a movie, please let me know and I'll figure something out for you.

Assignments

Written Reflections

Choose ONLY 5 weeks for which readings/movies are assigned (see our course schedule/calendar below) and submit a written reflection on one or two readings of your choice and/or the movie (if one is assigned for a week you choose). Each Written Reflection (a TOTAL of 5 for the entire term) is to be 2-3 typed double-spaced pages in length. Leave the weeks that you choose NOT to submit a Written Reflection for blank.

To guide your responses, you may address all or some of the following orienting questions:

Did you enjoy the reading(s)/movie? Why? Why not? (Taste/Interest)

Is (Are) the reading(s)/movie important? If so, why and for whom? If not, why not? (Relevance)

Can you apply the reading(s)/movie to a personal experience (past or present)? To a historical or current event? To a play or other artistic performance? To a novel or other written work? To a movie (either one assigned for this class or any other movie) or television show? (Application)

Did the reading(s)/movie inspire questioning/questions on your part? (Curiosity/Questioning)

Midterm and Final Papers

You are responsible for completing two examination papers this term. For each paper I will provide you with a set of prompts that you will be able to choose from. Prompts will be distributed two weeks before each paper is due. Each paper should be between 4-5 double-spaced pages long. Please submit these on Canvas.

Late and Incomplete Assignments

You are expected to maintain academic standards that reflect the highest level of honesty and integrity, including turning in your assignments on time.

Communicate with me as early as possible if meeting a deadline will be an issue.

Grading Distribution

Requirement	Percentage distribution toward final grade
1. 5 Reading Responses	50%
2. Midterm Examination Paper	25%
3. Final Examination Paper	25%
Final Grade	100%

Grades

I can't judge your opinion, therefore as long you voice that (your opinion) in written form via your submitted assignments, you will earn an "A" for your assignments. If you don't turn an assignment in, however, I have nothing to submit a grade for, therefore you will receive a 0 for that assignment.

Expectations

You wanted this experience. I wanted this experience. You're making me a part of your journey and I'm making you a part of mine. Be responsible because you're passionate. Let your curiosity guide you. Don't be afraid.

The Procedures for Resolving Alleged Violations of the Policy (herein the "Procedures") are found at: </media/633239/ai-procedures.pdf> and authorized by the San Diego Division of the Academic Senate's Educational Policy Committee.
