Course Description
Examination of the role that race and ethnicity play in immigrant group integration. Topics include theories of integration, racial and ethnic identity formation, racial and ethnic change, immigration policy, public opinion, comparisons between contemporary and historical waves of immigration. Prerequisites: upper-division standing. Will not receive credit for SOCI 127 and SOCB 127.

Academic Integrity
All papers will be submitted electronically via TurnItIn (TII), which will detect plagiarism, including self-plagiarism (meaning you already submitted that paper for another course) and failure to cite your sources, including page numbers. No other means of submission will be accepted. Your TII score should be under 20%. Scores between 30%-50% is an automatic D degree, anything above 50% is an automatic F. Write in your own words! Papers without citations or references will not receive higher than a C grade. Acts of academic dishonesty, from plagiarism, utilizing AI software like ChatGPT to cheating on exams, will receive an F grade and be reported to the Academic Honesty committee. Dishonesty in all forms undermine any institution’s ability to certify students’ knowledge and abilities. If you’re unsure about your writing, you can utilize the writing resources on campus, or simply visit the instructor during office hours and share what you’ve written up to that point via the Share Screen function on Zoom. For more, visit the academic integrity office: https://academicintegrity.ucsd.edu/.

Taking pictures or audio/video recording in class without the consent of everyone in the class violates the UCSD Code of Conduct 10.25 Privacy Policy: “Making a video recording, audio recording, taking photographs, or streaming audio/video of any person in a location where the person has a reasonable expectation of privacy, without that person’s knowledge and express consent…of all recorded parties.”

Grading (all assignments submitted via Canvas)

1 The Gradebook on Canvas only calculates combined assignments submitted. Late assignments that receive a zero aren’t automatically graded, and are often late. To better calculate your current grade, add the points you received from completed assignments and divide them by the amount of points the assignments were worth—use this grading scale as your guide.

Letter of Recommendation Statement
If you anticipate needing a letter of recommendation, please be mindful that as a contingent faculty member, my time at UCSD may be short. Reasonably, I cannot be expected to remember former students who didn’t take the time to get to know me. Letters are strictly for applications into graduate programs, social science ones in particular. Also, as a Lecturer, I have no access to the official UCSD letterhead that would give the letter a more official look. Please give me at least 30 days in advance of the application deadline.

Participation
Attendance is required. Please come to class on time. If you’re late or can’t attend for any reason, please be courteous and let me know in advance. It’s difficult to teach when interrupted. However, there are good interruptions to have, such as asking questions in response to the teaching content/reading. Please attend and participate in order to receive full credit.

Late Work Policy
The Survey is the only assignment that cannot be submitted late. Quizzes will be held towards the end of class. You have six days to make up a missed quiz, and after that they turn to zero, unless excused. The only excuses for missed quizzes are medical, family emergency, and proof of faulty internet connection that prevents your taking the quiz (please screen shot problem and send to instructor). If the first paper is over one week late without valid excuse it will not receive full credit. If the second paper is over three days late it will not receive full credit.

Late Quizzes: If you miss a quiz and can’t make it up during office hours, you have the option of taking it in the Triton Testing Center (TTC). If you think you won’t be able to make it to class on a day we have a Quiz, you should establish an account with the TTC: https://tritontesting.ucsd.edu/for-students/creating-student-account.html

Incomplete Policy
At the end of the quarter, if you need an Incomplete grade, only medical or other documented hardship will warrant it. That buys you ten more weeks to complete the missing assignment(s). If no work was submitted during the quarter, you will not be eligible.

Prompt Questions/Two Essays
For the writing assignment, you can respond to as few/many prompt questions as you like per paper, so long as you have written 800-1000 words by the end of Week 5 and a combined 1750-2000 words by the end of the quarter. Write in Times New Roman font size 12, double-spaced with 1” margins. If you prefer to write a family history project or something else pertaining to the intersection of immigration and race/ethnicity, please seek permission from me no later than the third Friday of the quarter. The first paper is due Friday of Week 5, 11:59pm. Second papers are due Friday of Week 10, 11:59pm.

Writing Rules/Guidelines, aka “Checklist”

- Each Paper is 800-1000 words (not including headings, titles, and works cited).
  - For the first paper, choose among prompt questions 1-5.
  - For the second paper, choose among questions 6-10.
- You can choose as few/many questions within that range to answer, so long as you reach the word count of 800-1000 words (words in titles and works cited not included).
- Write prompt question that you’re responding to as your title
  - Papers that don’t follow this rule automatically lose 10% of points
  - Your thesis is your response to the question
- Avoid colloquial statements/loose language
  - For example: “throughout history” is a common one. How far back are we talking? Let’s stick to what can be proved
- Cite facts and figures whenever you enter them in the text
  - Citation Format: (author last name year: page number(s))
- Write in your own words
  - Quotes should be no more than one sentence
- List all sources you cited in your Works Cited
  - Have at least two in-class reading sources if you only respond to one prompt, otherwise have at least three in-class reading sources for the entire paper. If you want, you can also add scholarly sources that are not on the syllabus on top of the quota for in-class reading sources.
  - Reference readings, not lectures. Prove that you read!
- Works Cited formats:
  - Article format: Author last name, first name. Year. “Article Title.” Journal Title Volume.Number: page range of entire article
  - Book format: Author last name, first name. Year. Title. Publisher home location: publisher.
- Your TurnItIn score should be under 20%. Scores between 30%-50% is an automatic D grade, anything above 50% is an automatic F
- If all of the above criteria are met and you make sound arguments, you can get the full points.

The diversity of the people of California has been the source of innovative ideas and creative accomplishments throughout the state’s history into the present. Diversity – a defining feature of California’s past, present, and future – refers to the variety of personal experiences, values, and worldviews that arise from differences of culture and circumstance. Such differences include race, ethnicity, gender, age, religion, language, abilities/disabilities, sexual orientation, gender identity, socioeconomic status, and geographic region, and more.

Because the core mission of the University of California is to serve the interests of the State of California, it must seek to achieve diversity among its student bodies and among its employees. The State of California has a compelling interest in making sure that people from all backgrounds perceive that access to the University is possible for talented students, staff, and faculty from all groups. The knowledge that the University of California is open to qualified students from all groups, and thus serves all parts of the community equitably, helps sustain the social fabric of the State.

Diversity should also be integral to the University’s achievement of excellence. Diversity can enhance the ability of the University to accomplish its academic mission. Diversity aims to broaden and deepen both the educational experience and the scholarly environment, as students and faculty learn to interact effectively with each other, preparing them to participate in an increasingly complex and pluralistic society. Ideas, and practices based on those ideas, can be made richer by the process of being born and nurtured in a diverse community. The pluralistic university can model a process of proposing and testing ideas through respectful, civil communication. Educational excellence that truly incorporates diversity thus can promote mutual respect and make possible the full, effective use of the talents and abilities of all to foster innovation and train future leadership.

Therefore, the University of California renews its commitment to the full realization of its historic promise to recognize and nurture merit, talent, and achievement by supporting diversity and equal opportunity in its education, services, and administration, as well as research and creative activity. The University particularly acknowledges the acute need to remove barriers to the recruitment, retention, and advancement of talented students, faculty, and staff from historically excluded populations who are currently underrepresented.

Religious Accommodation
See: EPC Policies on Religious Accommodation, Final Exams, Midterm Exams Links to an external site.

It is the policy of the university to make reasonable efforts to accommodate students having bona fide religious conflicts with scheduled examinations by providing alternative times or methods to take such examinations. If a student anticipates that a scheduled examination will occur at a time at which his or her religious beliefs prohibit participation in the examination, the student must submit to the instructor a statement describing the nature of the religious conflict and specifying the days and times of conflict.
For final examinations, the statement must be submitted no later than the end of the second week of instruction of the quarter.

For all other examinations, the statement must be submitted to the instructor as soon as possible after a particular examination date is scheduled.

If a conflict with the student’s religious beliefs does exist, the instructor will attempt to provide an alternative, equitable examination that does not create undue hardship for the instructor or for the other students in the class.

Discrimination and Harassment

See: Nondiscrimination Policy Statement:
https://ophd.ucsd.edu/policiesprocedures/nps_student.html

The University of California, in accordance with applicable Federal and State law and University policy, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, pregnancy, physical or mental disability, medical condition (cancer related or genetic characteristics), ancestry, marital status, age, sexual orientation, citizenship, or service in the uniformed services. The University also prohibits sexual harassment. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission, access, and treatment in University programs and activities.

This style sheet has been provided to assist students studying sociology in properly citing and referencing their papers and essays. The information in this document is taken from the American Sociological Association Style Guide (4th ed., 2010). We highly encourage students who plan to major in sociology or pursue their masters degree in sociology to purchase the complete Style Guide, which features sections on editorial styles, mechanics of style, guidelines for organizing and presenting content, and more detailed information on referencing your scholarly sources. Information about the ASA Style Guide can be found at www.asanet.org/journals/guides.cfm.

Plagiarism

The ASA has a firm commitment to full and proper attribution and authorship credit, as set forth in the ASA Code of Ethics.

(a) In publications, presentations, teaching practice, and service, sociologists explicitly identify credit, and reference the author when they take data or material verbatim from another person's written work, whether it is published, unpublished, or electronically available.

(b) In their publications, presentations, teaching, practice, and service, sociologists provide acknowledgment of and reference to the use of others' work, even if the work is not quoted verbatim or paraphrased, and they do not present others' work as their own whether it is published, unpublished, or electronically available.

Text Citations

Citations in the text include the last name of the author(s) and year of publication. Include page numbers when quoting directly from a work or referring to specific passages. Identify subsequent citations of the same source in the same way as the first. Examples follow:

If the author's name is in the text, follow it with the publication year in parentheses:

...in another study by Duncan (1959).

If the author's name is not in the text, enclose the last name and publication year in parentheses:

...whenever it occurred (Gouldner 1963).

Pagination follows the year of publication after a colon, with no space between the colon and the page number:

...Kuhn (1970:71).

Note: This is the preferred ASA style. Older forms of text citations are not acceptable: (Kuhn 1970, p. 71).

Give both last names for joint authors:

...(Martin and Bailey 1988).

If a work has three authors, cite all three last names in the first citation in the text; thereafter, use et al. in the citation. If a work has more than three authors, use et al. in the first citation and in all subsequent citations.

First citation for a work with three authors:

...had been lost (Carr, Smith, and Jones 1962).

Later: ...(Carr et al. 1962)

If a work cited was reprinted from a version published earlier, list the earliest publication date in brackets, followed by the publication date of the recent version used.

...Veblen ([1899] 1979) stated that...

Separate a series of references with semicolons. List the series in alphabetical or date order, but be consistent throughout the manuscript.

...(Green 1995; Mundi 1987; Smith and Wallop 1989).

Reference Lists

A reference list follows the text and footnotes in a separate section headed References. All references cited in the text must be listed in the reference section, and vice versa. It is the author’s responsibility to ensure that publication information for each entry is complete and correct.

- References should be double-spaced.
- List all references in alphabetical order by first author's last name
